

Howard Matalon
Executive Strategist

Mr. Matalon is an affiliate of Leadership Strategies, with over twenty-five years of experience as a labor and employment attorney. He is well known for his abilities to deliver unique coaching and strategy insights into the dynamics of the employment relationship for the benefit of both management and its executive teams.

Howard has had a long and accomplished career in the law, having worked for some of the largest national firms in the country, including Lowenstein Sandler, Latham & Watkins, Buchanan Ingersoll and Hale & Dorr. He is currently a firm member of OlenderFeldman LLP, where he provides precision guidance to the business community concerning the hiring, integration, retention, elimination and separation of employees.

Mr. Matalon's work at Leadership Strategies reflects the natural evolution of his legal practice. Howard brings the critical thinking and skill set of his background into every coaching session in order to maximize the potential of executives to fulfill their objectives and those of management. He is particularly skilled at identifying and building upon the core leadership issues that executives must address to grow themselves, their team and the business.

Mr. Matalon is a Bachelor of Arts graduate from Brandeis University, summa cum laude and a Juris Doctor from Boston University School of Law, cum laude.
