

Charles W. Hall
Leadership Strategist

Charles W. Hall's unique style of coaching enables clients to maximize their deep innate potential to transform business situations for the better. He is a dynamic speaker, teacher and facilitator engaging leaders in the simple truth that unleashing one's own freedom to change is always the precursor to improved performance. His "freedom finding" approach releases the enormous leadership energy already latent within people. The organization's response is always to convert that energy into growth.

Charles was trained at Holmes Institute for Consciousness Studies in Seattle, Washington graduating as a minister in 2000. He was then trained as a leader at the International Spiritual Center in Culver City, California. He has been a featured speaker and facilitated workshops at centers and conferences across the world.

In December 2007 Charles founded Genesis Global Spiritual Center in Seattle where he served as Senior Leader. As head of the Center, he built Genesis from scratch to an organization of 300 people.

Charles' goal is to use the depth of his interpersonal skills to work intimately with clients to deliver growth within that manifests as attainment of desired career and business goals without.

He has worked with people from all walks of life: Pharmaceuticals, Clinical Research, Advertising, Cosmetics, Sports Teams, Attorneys, and Spiritual Studies.
