

Susan Hall
Leadership Strategist

Susan Hall’s unique style of leadership coaching enables clients to maximize their personal and professional strengths and take control of performance and how the world perceives them.

Working very closely with individuals to achieve the highest of inner awareness for the purpose of growth, provides Susan and her client with a doorway through which she quickly addresses transitioning to ever-greater levels of executive expertise. This “intimate doorway” approach illuminates particular leadership issues, encouraging individuals to look deeper within as well as toward demonstrable results.

Susan’s goal is to use the depth of her interpersonal skills to work intimately with clients to champion their most authentic self, hence optimizing their attainment of desired goals and growth.

Her clients come from all walks of life: Pharmaceuticals, Clinical Research, Advertising, Cosmetics, Sports Teams, Attorneys, and spiritual Studies.

For the past 20 years she has worked as a Leadership Coach and Spiritual Director, teaching, providing organizations leadership and inspiring authentic living for individuals and groups. She is a tigress for excellence, inspiration and results, steeped in authenticity and loyalty. Her clients overcome outer challenges through confidence and peace at their inner core. By nature, she is a woman of acceptance, providing pathways for clients to gravitate to their place of optimal authenticity, performance and living.

She has been trained in Leadership, Nursing, Interpersonal Communications, Counseling, Spiritual Directorship, Teaching, and Meditation.